ChosenSecurity Achieves SISAC Accreditation

ChosenSecurity, in partnership with the National Notary Association (NNA) is leading the way to secure mortgage transactions

Needham, MA – February 26, 2007 – ChosenSecurity, Inc., a leading specialist in identity verification and security services, today announced that they have completed the SISAC accreditation process. ChosenSecurity is providing the National Notary Association identity verification and document security technology to empower an expanded Electronic Notary Seal (ENS) program for notaries public. The SISAC accreditation was an key step to enabling this program.

The Secure Identity Services Accreditation Corporation (SISAC), a wholly owned nonprofit subsidiary of the Mortgage Bankers Association (MBA), was created to accredit and certify secure online identity providers. This accreditation structure allows individual firms to establish various levels of “plug and play” identity within the context of secure e-commerce transactions for use over unsecured networks, such as the Internet.

“The SISAC brand has become recognized as offering a streamlined mechanism to certify secure identity suppliers, and thus bridge the gap between individual initiatives,” said David Kittle, MBA’s Vice Chair and Chair of SISAC. “I commend these entities in completing the accreditation process to establish standardized identity in the real estate arena, and I encourage others to follow their lead.”

SISAC exists to address three essential missions for the industry:

- Educate and promote the use of secure identity within commercial and residential real estate finance;
- Create the necessary infrastructure for accrediting third parties providing secure identity products and services, such as technical, auditing and insurance solutions;
- and

Corporate Headquarters: 1000 Highland Avenue, Suite 200, Needham, MA 02494

- Leverage identity management best practices to establish open standards for trust in the mortgage industry.

“SISAC’s standardization of secure online identity credentials will most certainly help the notary industry, and other industries involved in the mortgage transaction process, to achieve uniformity and I commend the individuals that have obtained this credential,” said Timothy S. Reiniger, NNA Vice President and Executive Director.

“ChosenSecurity sees this accreditation as both an accomplishment as well as an opportunity,” said Dean Coclin, Vice President of Business Development at ChosenSecurity. “We are proud to have completed the rigorous SISAC accreditation process and believe that this accreditation will position us ahead of other service providers.”

About the MBA

The Mortgage Bankers Association (MBA) is the national association representing the real estate finance industry, an industry that employs more than 500,000 people in virtually every community in the country. Headquartered in Washington, D.C., the association works to ensure the continued strength of the nation’s residential and commercial real estate markets; to expand homeownership and extend access to affordable housing to all Americans. MBA promotes fair and ethical lending practices and fosters professional excellence among real estate finance employees through a wide range of educational programs and a variety of publications. Its membership of over 3,000 companies includes all elements of real estate finance: mortgage companies, mortgage brokers, commercial banks, thrifts, Wall Street conduits, life insurance companies and others in the mortgage lending field.
