

Installing your Webserver Certificate

Your certificate will be sent to you by email. The email message includes the web server certificate that you purchased in the body of the email message. For installation instructions, please see your HSPHERE manual.